9:00am-12:00pm-Exposure Therapy: Principles and Application for Several Clinical Issues: Exposure therapy is a time efficient, effective, and potent intervention that has traditionally primarily need used for the treatment of phobias. This CBT approach has been expanded in recent decades for applicability for an array of disorders/issues that are not traditionally treated with exposure. New and creative applications have been developed that can benefit the practicing clinician with numerous issues. The workshop will outline principles of exposure, explore the characteristics of various disorders that make exposure a good treatment of choice or in conjunction with other treatments, and learn various methods of exposure. Presented by: Andres Tapia, M.A., M.Ed., LPC-S, NCC

12noon to 1:30pm -----lunch-----numerous restaurants in vicinity----

1:30pm to 4:30pm-A Proactive Approach to Ethics for Practitioners: The need to be an ethical practitioner continues to be a central priority for clinicians of all allied mental health fields. Ethics can no longer be considered a topic that is only relevant to the preparation of licensure exams, to obtain CEUs/PD hours, or when taking a jurisprudence. Instead, a proactive approach to ethics is necessary and most effective for practicing as ethically competent clinicians. This workshop will explore a deeper, more personal, and more responsive approach to ethics. Presented by: Andres Tapia, M.A., M.Ed., LPC-S, NCC
